I understand this will be followed in accordance with the Rate Order. Customers and Renters/lessee. It reads as follows. The customer(owner of property) shall be required to sign an Alternate Billing Agreement. Any Goforth Special Utility District Customer renting or leasing property to other parties must authorize a billing agreement for rental accounts. The District will bill the renter/lessee for utility service as a third party, and a $50 transfer fee (nonrefundable) will be charged on the renter/lessee first months water bill to have service billed to them as a third party.

I understand GSUD is not responsible for making sure the renter is informed of GSUD policies. However, I can direct the to GSUD for information on GSUD policies.
